

Wing Ching Yau (Chloe)

Mobile: +1 (774) 243 4280 | E-mail: chloeyau001004@gmail.com

EDUCATION

---

Clark University, Worcester, MA
2024

August 2021 to May

Bachelor of Arts: Major in Community, Youth, and Education Studies (CYES), Concentration: Comparative, Race, and Ethnic Studies
GPA: 3.92/4.0

- Dean List, First and Second Honor, six semesters
- International Triana Scholarship, Dean Honorary Scholarship, Barth Summer Internship Award

RELEVANT COURSEWORK

---

- Complexities of Urban Schooling
- Global Issues in Education
- Racism & Educational Inequality in the Lives of Youth in Urban Schools
- Exploration of Multicultural Children's and Young Literature: Focus on Latinx-U.S. Experiences
- Social Justice Participatory Research
- Literacy Development

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

---

Sunnyside Montessori Child Development Center, Hong Kong

May 2023 to August 2023

Early Childhood Assistant Teacher

- Supported class teacher in preparing materials and classroom upkeep
- Assisted programs for children from one to six years old

Main IDEA, Worcester, MA

June 2022 to August 2022

Summer Intern, Administrative Assistant

- Assisted functionalities of non-profit organization's programs; free summer art programs for 8 to 12-year-old youths
- Created a PBL lesson plan and taught a class for 20 teens

Floyd Philosophy Salon Summer Camp, China

June 2021 to July 2021

Camp Supervisor, Head of Living Counselors

- Assigned and guided counselors to arrange activities for campers such as Deep Speed Dating and Tie-dye Workshop
- Supervised campers' activities and ensured campsite's safety

IDEAS Summer School Camp, China

June 2019 to August 2019

Camp Counselor

- Assisted master teachers' themed courses
- Designed and led different extracurricular activities for campers from the age of 7-11

PUBLICATIONS

---

Park, J. Y., Chery, B., DeMeulenaere, E. J., Franklin, E., Knight, L., Richards, Z., Yau, C. (accepted). Community, care, and relational practice: Reimagining freedom dreaming in a Difficult Dialogues program. In M. Abad & G. Q. Conchas (Eds.), Repertoires of resistance. Routledge.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCES

---

Praxis Thesis: Understanding the Impacts of Asian and Asian American Student Caucus Program

January 2023 to Present

Organizer and Researcher

- Coordinated a community for Asian and Asian American students alongside activities to navigate and discuss our identities
- Conducted semi-structured interviews with participants before and after the program regarding their experiences by participating in the program
- Investigated the powers of holding affinity spaces for students of color in a predominantly white institution

Research on Clark Undergraduate Students' Perceptions of Care, Worcester, MA

January 2022 to May 2022

Research Fellow

- Supervised by Professor Jie Park, designed and conducted interviews with students on their understanding of being cared for by faculty members on campus
- Transcribed data collected, performed inductive coding, and presented findings to faculty members' meeting

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT AND LEADERSHIP

---

Asian and Asian American Undergraduate Students Caucus (AAAUSC)

January 2023 to Present

Co-Leader

- Cultivated affinity space and organized activities (e.g., photo elicitation, poetry night, and art sessions) for Asian and Asian American students at Clark

Difficult Dialogue Fellowship, Worcester, MA

January 2023 to Present

Difficult Dialogue (DD) Fellow

- Co-facilitated with other DD Fellows, series of dialogues regarding racial justice for the campus community at Clark

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

---

- Certifications: Massachusetts Tests for Educator Licensure (Communication and Literacy Skills, Foundation of Reading, General Curriculum Subtest 2)
- Language: English (Full professional proficiency); Mandarin (Full professional proficiency); Cantonese (Native)
- Skills: Canva, Video Editing (Final Cut Pro), Microsoft Office